I oppose Proposal 13 which seeks authority to restrict fruit shipped to market destinations.

--- Give me a break. We did not elect the GOP to add to the regulatory burden of the US
Get the HELL OUT OF BUSINESS.

Do we have to put in libertarians to get government downsized and to make it keep its nose in things that belong under the purview of government? Apparently. I've seen little justification for my vote last November in the behavior of the elected or their selected bureaucrats.

As long as fruit is healthy, mature, and nutritious, the government should not restrict it.

It would be illegal for any other industry to dictate transactions between willing buyers and sellers, so USDA should not allow that authority in the fruit industry.
